Erectors' Association. Drew had said Baker had been negligent in pressing the investigation locally, and Baker resisted successfully in the county court the effort of Drew and the county prosecutor of Los Angeles, Cal., to remove the Los Angeles books and papers of the Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, now in the hands of the Federal authorities.

club from the policeman.

After the judge ordered Baker to appear and show why he should not be held for contempt. Foster left the bullding, and Baker went to the county grand jury room to examine Drew.

The Federal jury to-day had before it Superintendent of Police Martin Hyland, Chief of Detective William Holta and policemen who raided the offices of the Iron Workers' Association on April 22 last, when the secretary-treasurer, John J. McNamara, was arrested. The detectives were questioned as to their investigation of explosions in buildings erected by an employer of non-union iron workers in this city in 1909.
